

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Patty Mosteller, Atlanta Interfaith Broadcasters, (404) 892-0454, pmosteller@aibtv.com

AIB ORIGINAL SERIES PRAISE CENTRAL NOMINATED FOR AN EMMY

(ATLANTA, GA – May 10, 2010) -- For the third year in a row, an AIB original program has been nominated for an Emmy by the Southeast Regional Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. The AIB original series Praise Central received this year's nomination. Praise Central – Winter's Halo was nominated in the category of Outstanding Achievement - Television News and Program Specialty Excellence. This is AIB's fourth Emmy nomination in 5 years.

The episode aired in July, 2009 and featured concert footage and interviews with the Christian pop rock band Winter's Halo. Praise Central caught up with the band as they made a tour stop in Dallas, GA. Viewers can catch the Emmy nominated episode in it's entirety by visiting aibtv.com and clicking on Video on Demand. Praise Central airs every Friday at 6:00 pm and is also available daily on AIB Internet TV at AIBNet.tv.

Winners will be announced June 26 at the 2010 Southeast Regional Emmy Awards Ceremony at the Grand Hyatt Buckhead. Congratulations to Sharon Phillip (producer), Daisha Wilber, Lindsay Harper and AIB intern Benjamin Walley.

###

About AIB: Atlanta Interfaith Broadcasters Inc. is the nation's largest regional interfaith cable network and is celebrating its 40th Anniversary in 2009. AIB has been providing faith-based communities and nonprofit service organizations access to a larger audience since 1969. AIB remains a destination for international dignitaries and media representatives because of its unique programming platform which promotes dialogue between all faiths, cultures and socio economic backgrounds. AIB is a self-supporting organization and is seen in more than 1 million homes across 19 metro area counties. www.aibtv.com