

Mariyah Sabir is a recent a graduate of Warith Deen Mohammed High School in Atlanta Georgia. She received the AJC Award for best all around senior at her school. She now attends Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley Massachusetts and is on the varsity equestrian team. She plans on Minorng in Arabic and Majoring in Biological Science. Mariyah has been apart of the Soy family for one and a half years now! She loves to learn about others. She loves to teach others as well. Mariyah also loves to have good laughs with all people!